

Sermon Questions - April 21, 2024
The Good Shepherd - John 10:11-18

Warm Up Questions

Have you had to leave something or someone important to you under the care of another person? What were some of your concerns about leaving it in someone else's hands? What was the outcome?

For whom or what would you be willing to lay down your life? Why are you willing to do that? What is the greatest thing that you have given up for someone else?

Content Questions

What does Jesus say the good shepherd does?

Is the hired hand a shepherd? Why or why not?

What happens when the hired hand sees a wolf? Why? What happens when the wolf gets to the sheep?

How does Jesus describe the relationship between the good shepherd and the sheep?

Who are the other sheep in verse 16 that Jesus wants to bring into the fold? How will they know Jesus? Why does Jesus want to bring them into the fold?

Who takes Jesus' life? Why is that significant for Jesus and the sheep?

Application Questions

Who or what are the wolves in this world? Do we see them as wolves, or how are they dressed in sheep clothing? How do we protect ourselves from the wolves?

In whom do you place your trust in to protect and provide for you? If not Jesus, then who? Why do you trust them? Will they be willing to give their life for you?

Do you know Jesus' voice? How do you know it's Jesus' voice and not someone else? How do you get to know what Jesus' voice sounds like?
